

Biography

Doug Hacker

Vice President
Country Club Trust Company
Kansas City, Missouri

Present Position:

Vice President

History:

Doug Hacker is a Vice President for Country Club Trust Company and serves in a dual capacity for Country Club Trust Company and Club Trust Company's wholly-owned investment subsidiary Tower Wealth Managers.

For the Trust Company, Doug is an Administrative Account Officer and works directly with several clients and their relationships. His banking career began in the early 1980's working for United Missouri Bank and Centerre Bank. He began his trust career in 1986 when he joined Boatmen's Trust Company in Kansas City in trust operations. He became an account officer in 1989 and worked with a number of high profile relationships. From 2006 until 2009, Doug served as the Senior Market Risk Manager for U.S. Trust Bank of America Private Wealth Management.

In addition to Doug's administrative account responsibilities, his experience as the Senior Risk Manager at Bank of America allows him to serve as Tower Wealth Managers Chief Compliance Officer.

Originally from El Dorado Springs, Missouri, Doug moved to the Kansas City area in 1981 and has been involved in community service on the boards of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and the Community Services League of Eastern Jackson County. He currently serves on the Finance Committee of the Noland Road Baptist Church in Independence.