

Biography

Jonathan Klem

*Vice President
Country Club Trust Company
Kansas City, Missouri*

Present Position:

Vice President

History:

Jonathan Klem is a Vice President for Country Club Trust Company and serves as a Trust Administrative Officer working with a number of trust and investment management clients.

Jonathan joined the Country Club Bank organization in 2007 after serving in a senior bank management role for North American Savings Bank. His banking experience began in 1992 and includes positions with US Bank, Bank One (now JP Morgan Chase) in Chicago and AnchorBank in Madison, Wisconsin. His financial experience also includes working for DST Systems in Kansas City and the Internal Revenue Service.

Jonathan's extensive banking and finance background allows him to assist his clients in the traditional trust administrative role, but it also allows him to assist a number of his investment management clients as he is able to advise them in a broader financial/banking relationship.

Jonathan holds both an undergraduate and law degree from the University of Wisconsin in Madison, Wisconsin.

Jonathan is a member of the Mid-America Planned Giving Council, the Eastern Planning Council, and the Kansas City Metropolitan Bar Association. He participates in the United Way of Greater Kansas City's Lead KC initiative and is a member of the community support board at Seton Center Family and Health Services.