

Biography

Mark W. Cody

*Senior Vice President
Country Club Trust Company
Kansas City, Missouri*

Present Position:
Senior Vice President

History:

Mark Cody's responsibilities include business development in all areas of trust services, including personal trusts, investment management, IRA's and endowments and foundations.

Mark joined the Country Club Bank organization from Bank of America in Kansas City. He moved to Kansas City in 1988 joining the former Boatmen's First National Bank, which is now the Bank of America. Mark is a Kansas State University graduate with a degree in accounting who began his professional career in Tulsa, Oklahoma with the CPA firm, Arthur Young & Company. Mark had switched his career to banking and had been with First National Bank of Tulsa, Oklahoma for four years before he joined the correspondent banking area of Boatmen's in Kansas City.

Mark is a member of the Estate Planning Society of Kansas City and the Eastern Kansas Estate Planning Council.